THE LODGE

Tres Rios Lodge is a singularly attractive and secluded lodge located right on the confluence of the Chimehuin and the Collon Cura Rivers. The lodge offers private access to 10 miles of the best and most productive stretches of the Chimehuin River which can be fished both by floating and by wading, with dries, nymphs and streamers. This section of the river gets very little pressure due to its remoteness; virtually only Tres Rios Lodge's guests can access it without having to float dozens of miles to reach its secluded waters. It also offers access to productive stretches of the Collon Cura River as well as to several side-lagoons that hold large trout. Tres Rios Lodge is a breathtaking spot in the middle of the Patagonian wilderness, surrounded by profuse wildlife, offering an interesting and attractive variety of waters. A true Patagonian experience.

Custom Itineraries

Every Patagonia Outfitters Itinerary is fully customizable. Our team has been organizing memorable fishing adventures in Argentina for nearly 40 years, and will work with you to build the perfect itinerary. Some guests choose to spend a full week at Tres Rios Lodge. Other guests will often begin or end their trip here, combining Tres Rios Lodge with a stay at one (or more) of our other partner lodges and estancias, overnight camping trips, or other non-angling travel in Argentina such as wine-tasting in Mendoza or touring the famous Iguazu Falls.

All of our trips begin or end with domestic flights from Buenos Aires to either Bariloche or San Martin de los Andes. We will meet you at the airport and take care of you for the duration of your stay with us in northern Patagonia.
